

SUMMER STUDENT
Call for Entry for Show & Sale in LCAC Retail Store

The London Clay Art Centre would like to showcase our summer students, by featuring their clay art.

All work will be displayed on centre table for the last 2 weeks of August.

5 pieces of pottery will be displayed. (If small items, may be more than 5 items OR if large items, maybe less than 5 items). Please have extra items available to replace sold items.

Dates to Remember:

Expression of Interest: Monday August 6 (details below)

Pottery Due: Sunday, August 18

Setup Date: Monday August 19

Exhibition Dates: August 19 to Sunday September 1

Opening Reception: TBD

CRITERIA:

1. You must be a member of the London Potters Guild in good standing.
2. Work may have been created at school or at the London Clay Art Centre.
3. Functional or Non-functional
4. Functional work must be food-safe
5. All summer students agrees to price their work according to the pricing guide established by the store committee. NO EXCEPTIONS. Prices for individual pieces must fit within the minimum guidelines. Price stickers will be provided by the Guild, artist will need to provide price.
6. Items presented for sale can NOT be:
 - Items with a copyrighted image or logo
 - Items that are a direct copy or only a slightly altered copy of another member's work
 - Items that are a copy or very similar to another local potter or another well-known potter
 - Items not up to standard for quality and workmanship – no seconds. There should not be any glaze flaws, rough bottoms or sharp edges anywhere, be wobbly, etc. on functional ware. Sculptural ware should not have rough bottoms, cracks, obvious repairs, glaze crawls (unintentional), be wobbly or unbalanced enough to fall over easily.
7. If items are mixed media (e.g. cord necklaces with a clay pendant) the majority or most significant and noticeable part of the item should be clay. The store committee will be the final judge of whether the piece(s) fit within that guideline.
